We don't know how we would have made it through these first weeks after Greg and Brian's accident without all of you. The pain is beginning to subside, and we hold hope for a good recovery, though much work lies ahead. God's Blessings on you all!*

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Pregnant and parenting moms are in need in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference. Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. Our parish is joining a nationwide effort entitled "Walking with Moms in Need", (www.walkingwithmoms.com.) As part of this initiative, our parish will undertake a yearlong process to assess, expand and better communicate resources to pregnant and parenting moms in our local community. We invite all parishioners to join us as we begin this journey together. For more information, please contact Eileen Bielemeier, 315-594-2385 or bielemeier@gmail.com.

Non-Perishable Food Campaign

WE GIVE THANKS to our Parish community for the abundant donations to our food campaign. We were able to provide a variety of goods to the Red Creek Community Food Cupboard and the Wolcott Presbyterian Church Food Cupboard. In addition, through Social Ministry funds, we made monetary donations to help them provide for holiday giving. Please remember in your prayers those who volunteer and work in food pantries and other feeding programs in our community. Repeatedly, Jesus tells us through his words and actions to care about people's physical needs. We are all doing just that! Thank you very much for your support.

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

After the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy), the congregation kneels for the first time. The Eucharistic Prayer is part of the Mass which only the priest can say. However, I meditate in silence and ponder each word, and encourage you to do the same. The Eucharistic Prayer recalls what happened at the Last Supper. The sequence of events is retold until the part where Jesus takes the bread. Then the priest changes from third person to first person and speaks as if Christ himself were standing on-site holding the host. The priest acts in the person of Christ (in persona Christi) as another Christ (alter Christus). The priest doesn't say "This is Christ's body" or "This is Jesus' blood." He uses the same pronoun, My, because at the moment of consecration, the priest is Jesus. The priest uses the same words that Jesus used at the Last Supper (Mathew 26:26-29) at the Consecration: "This is My body, which will be given up for you." He elevates the Host above the altar for everyone to see. The priest genuflects, takes the chalice of wine, and goes again from the third person to the first, speaking as Christ: "THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD, THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT; WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS. DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.." He elevates the chalice, and he genuflects. Sincerely, Fr. Felician

Today's Gospel describes how Jesus called his first disciples and the immediacy with which these men dropped everything to follow him. We can only begin to imagine what Jesus' presence must have been like to invoke such a response in these first disciples. While a few of us might relate to such a radical conversion, many of us would find such a sudden change in ourselves or in another person unsettling. There are few things for which we would willingly drop everything. And yet this is the immediacy with which these first disciples responded to Jesus. These first disciples were willing to drop everything in order to make Jesus and the Kingdom of God the most important things in their lives.

Gather as a family and talk about circumstances in which you have had to "drop everything." (the call to pick up a sick child from school, the cry of a hurt or angry child) How did you feel about having to change your plans in each of these situations? How do we feel when someone asks us to drop everything to help him or her? For many of us, it is not easy to drop everything to respond to the needs of another. Read today's Gospel, Mark 1:14-20. Invite your family to imagine what Jesus' presence and invitation to these first followers must have been like that they responded by leaving their livelihood to become his disciples. How might our life change if we understood the Kingdom of God to be as important and immediate in our lives? Ask God to help you experience the Kingdom of God with such immediacy. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.
